Bunbury Day Tours

BUNBURY-MARGARET RIVER TOUR TASTE OF MARGARET RIVER

Every Tuesday & Saturday 8am

Cost $120 per person

Includes: Lunch, entry fees, morning & afternoon tea

Depart along the Bussell Highway to Busselton. Extending 1.8km, the heritage-listed Busselton Jetty is the longest timber-piled jetty in the Southern Hemisphere. Jump on board the Jetty Train to the spectacular Underwater Observatory. Vasse Virgin is a natural olive oil soap factory and hand blends a variety of luxurious natural body products. Experience the variety of extra virgin olive oils, exquisite olives and other delicious offerings. Sit back and enjoy a sumptuous meal at the historic Margaret River Hotel. Delight your taste buds at the Fudge Factory. Enter into a fascinating world of chocolate with free chocolate tastings and viewing windows. Visit Canal Rocks, an ancient and unusual rock formation extending along the Geopraphe Coastline near Yallingup. In wild and stormy weather massive waves smash against the rocks and churn through the canals. Enjoy afternoon tea, taking in the natural beauty, before heading back to Bunbury.

BUNBURY MORNING TOUR

Every Wednesday Morning 8am

Cost $65 per person

$120 per person for both AM & PM Tours

Includes: Morning tea & entry fee

Join us at Royal Gala Tours and discover the history of Bunbury! Bunbury's resident population of Bottlenose Dolphins is eager to make your acquaintance at the Dolphin Discovery Centre in Koombana Bay, Australia's most ecologically aware dolphin experience. Take in some local history at St Mark's Picton Church, the second oldest church in Western Australia. Travel back in time when we visit the Dardanup Heritage Park, hosting one of Australia's finest collections of heritage items, tractors and automobiles from our pioneering past. We return to Bunbury via the panoramic views of the city from Boulters Heights. Pickup at Bunbury Visitors Centre and selected Bunbury Hotels.

BUNBURY AFTERNOON TOUR

Every Wednesday Afternoon 1pm

Cost $65 per person

$120 per person for both AM & PM Tours

Includes: Afternoon tea & entry fee

Journey along the Leschenault Estuary to view historic Upton House and the Australind Church. The "Featured Wood Gallery Museum" showcases unique creative wood designs and displays of Australian, American Indian, US Civil War Era and American West history. Experience bygone days at King Cottage built in 1880 for a glimpse of fashion, machinery, tools and furniture of that era. Travel through the outer suburbs of Bunbury and visit the "Maidens" before exploring Big Swamp Wildlife Park with the kangaroos, native birds and ducks. Your day concludes with a drive along the Back Beach for a panoramic view from Boulters Heights and the black and white checkered Bunbury Lighthouse.

A LITTLE BIT OF COUNTRY HISTORY

Every Thursday 8am

Cost $120 per person

Includes: Lunch, entry fees, morning & afternoon tea

We discover a little bit of country history. Enjoy the panoramic views as we climb the Darling Ranges to discover the beauty of the Wellington National Park and Wellington Weir. Relive historical aspects of the Collie Mining Industry with the Men of the Coalmines. Take a trip down memory lane and waltz back in time to the tunes of the Nickelodeon at the Collie Museum. Travel east to delightful Boyup Brook, where there is absolutely something for everyone - inspirational art sculptures, unique holograms, an impressive beetle and butterfly display, and of course the heart of country music. Visit the acclaimed Harvey Dickson's Country Music Centre with its Elvis and Johnny Cash record room, big blokes shed, rodeo, concert arena and much more before returning home to Bunbury via the scenic Preston Valley.

BUNBURY HINTERLAND

Departs Every Friday 8am

Cost $120 per person

Includes: Lunch, entry fees, morning & afternoon tea

Join us at Royal Gala Tours as we discover 'Beyond' Bunbury. Travel the 'Golden Mile' straight to the core of the apple industry. Head to the very summit of the Darling Scarp and experience aspects of the mining and timber industries at the Greenbushes Discovery Centre. Continue on through the Blackwood River Valley to Bridgetown. Experience the magic of Balingup and enjoy the unique galleries and specialty shops of the main street. Delight your taste buds – sample the local produce and fine wines at Birdwood Park Winery. The magic continues as we travel through the countryside of Brookhampton, Preston Valley and into the delightful Ferguson Valley, to surprise the whimsical inhabitants of Gnomesville. Homeward bound, we travel the Ferguson Wine Loop, Wildbull Brewery and take in the breathtaking vista of the rich farmlands overlooking Bunbury.

2 Days, 1 Night

Cost Adults $520, Seniors $500, S/S $80

Optional Extra Ballooning $300

Includes: Entries, morning and afternoon tea, lunch

Day 1 Home – Northam (L/D)

Depart from the South West to Mundaring Weir to discover where the Golden Pipeline to Kalgoorlie all began. Travel through the picturesque Avon Valley to the quaint town of York, the oldest inland town in Western Australia. Established in December 1979, the York Motor Museum is now recognised as one of the finest private collections of veteran, vintage, classic and racing cars in Australia. The York Mill has its own remarkable history, from its inception as a flour mill established in 1892, to its present day life as a center for fine Western Australian arts and crafts. Visit Holy Trinity Church, completed in 1854 and consecrated in 1858. The interior is richly adorned with glass designed by WA artist Robert Juniper. The original high altar and Walsingham Shrine feature Juniper's paintings. The church also contains a rare Albert Piesse pipe organ with eight bells. Overnight at Northam Motel.

Day 2 Northam – Home (B)

Rise and shine for all those Balloonists brave enough to head up into the clouds. On landing, you will enjoy a champagne breakfast and be awarded with your Balloonatics Certificate. For those not ballooning, sleep in before taking in the delights of Northam. On our way home view adult emus, nests and chicks in their enclosed but natural bush setting. The emu shop offers a wide range of products. The Place of Plenty olive grove has a range of fresh olive oils with distinct flavours from several varieties of organically grown olives... If you are looking for that special piece for your garden, look no further than at the Toodyay Emporium. Old world water pumps, garden benches, large outdoor bells, urns, door mats, wall decals, bird baths or a water feature will add that special touch to your garden or home.. Free time in historic Toodyay steeped in Moondyne Joe history. Make sure you visit one of the largest Christmas shops. BYO lunch before departing homeward bound.

MID WEST MARVELS

Thursday 14th-Friday 15th June 2018

2 Days, 1 Night

Cost Adults $480, Seniors $460, S/S $80

Includes: DBB, morning and afternoon tea, entries, lunches

Day 1 New Norcia – Cervantes (L/D)

Morning tea at the old McLarty Homestead and on to the historic town of Bindoon, one of the towns passed through by the monks from New Norcia on their travels to Perth. Revel in the history of New Norcia on a guided tour before departing for the beachside town of Cervantes, home to the Pinnacles and Rock Lobster industry.

Day 2 New Norcia – Gingin (B/L)

An early morning tour to the Rock Lobster Factory to stock up on local seafood freshly caught. Marvel at the ancient structure of the Pinnacles in the Nambung National Park. Lake Thetis became isolated from the sea about 4800 years ago when sea levels dropped and coastal dunes formed around the Lake. It is one of only a few places in the world with living marine Stromatolites, or 'living fossils'. Stromatolites are like rocky lumps and have been dated to about 3370 years old. Our last wonder for the day is the Gravity Centre in Gingin. The Leaning Tower of Gingin is an awesome feat of engineering. It is a 45m tall steel structure, leaning at an angle of 15 degrees. Learn about the forces of gravity and how black holes are formed, and discover how sound travels at this learning centre before we travel home.

Day 1 Home – Geraldton (L/D)

Head north on the Great Indian Ocean Drive and take in magnificent scenery. Enjoy Lunch at Cervantes Nambung National Park which contains thousands of limestone Pinnacles, some up to 5 meters high. The variation in colours (due mainly to the variation in soil types) and the stark relief of the Pinnacles against a backdrop of constantly shifting sand dunes creates an eerie landscape. Onward North to Port Denison, initially known as Irwin Port in 1866 due to its position near the mouth of the Irwin River. It was officially named and gazetted in 1867, it was renamed in honor of Sir William Denison, a former Governor of Tasmania who in 1851 had visited Western Australia in connection with transportation of convicts. Relax at Geraldton All Seasons Motel.

Day 2 Geraldton (B/D)

For those feeling adventurous take an optional 90 minute flight out to the Abrolhos Islands, or indulge in an optional half day crayfish charter including a crayfish lunch on board. For those land lovers enjoy historical Geraldton with a tour of St Francis Xavier Cathedral, regarded as one of Monsignor Hawes finest works. The HMAS lookout is a memorial to 645 young Australian sailors who lost their lives when the HMAS Sydney II sank off the coast of Geraldton. When the HMAS Sydney II was built, she was the pride of the Royal Australian Navy fleet and named after Sydney, the capital city of New South Wales. Visit the Old Gaol and hospital in use from 1887 to 1984. Discover the fascinating maritime history of the State's Midwest, from the famous Batavia mutiny, to lesser known tales such as the inspiring saga of human ingenuity displayed by Zeewijk survivors.

Day 3 Geraldton – Kalbarri (B/L/D)

Depart via historic Northampton and the limestone ruins of the Lynton convict hiring depot complex near the coast at Port Gregory in use from 1853–1857. It was the first convict depot north of Fremantle. Observe the changing colours of Port Gregory's Pink Lake which is due to the presence of Dunaliella Salina, a bacteria that lives in the salt deposits. Walk on the wild side at Rainbow Jungle where you will find the largest parrot free flight aviary in the country, with the largest flock of Purple Crowned Lorikeets in the world and many other magnificently coloured Australian parrots. Murchison House is one of the oldest and largest properties in W.A. It was founded in 1858 by Charles von Bibra to provide meat and wheat to lead miners at Galena, beef to the growing Perth market and remount horses to the British army in India. Overnight Kalbarri

Day 4 Kalbarri – Monkey Mia (B/L/D)

Kalbarri National Park boasts incredibly diverse landscapes, from dramatic river gorges and coastal cliffs, to the famous Nature's window and dazzling wildflowers and the Kalbarri Skywalk construction at the West Loop Lookout. Enjoy the tranquillity of Hawks Head, Ross Graham Lookout and Natures window which offers a wonderful photo opportunity. Shell Beach stretches over 120 klms. Millions of white Coquina shells have accumulated over time to create this unique environment, it is estimated that the shells are ten metres deep. Travel on to Shark Bay or Gathaagudu which is the traditional name meaning "two waters". Denham is named after Captain Henry Mangles Denham and has evolved from a thriving pearl town with a street paved with pearl shell to this small holiday and fishing town. Reflect on the days travel over- looking the pristine bay at Monkey Mia Resort.

Day 5 Monkey Mia – Carnarvon (B/D)

Head for Monkey Mia Beach during feeding times and meet the dolphins that have put this beautiful seaside spot on the map. The friendly pod of wild bottlenose dolphins regularly swim to Monkey Mia's shore to interact with humans up to three times a day. All aboard for a visit to the Blue Lagoon floating Pearl Farm to watch the seeding, cultivating and harvesting of this industry and purchase pearl products. Last minute shopping in Denham before we depart for Carnarvon via Wooramel Roadhouse and Edaggee. Overnight at the Gateway Motel.

Day 6 Carnarvon (B/D)

The Inggarda people are the traditional owners of the region around Carnarvon. located at the mouth of the Gascoyne River, it was known as Kuwinywardu which means "neck of water" The town was founded in 1883, initially as a port and supply centre for the surrounding region, it is named after Henry Herbert, 4th Earl of Carnarvon, and a past Secretary of State for the Colonies. For those thrill seekers take an Optional Helicopter Flight along the coast or drive out to the OTC Dish built in 1966, which dominates the Carnarvon skyline and stands as a reminder of days when the town participated in the space race and helped put a man on the moon then later assisted in tracking Halley's Comet in 1987. Visit the historic Carnarvon Jetty Museum and take a tour of a Banana Plantation... Discover the dark history of Bernier and Dore Islands. Overnight Gateway Motel Carnarvon.

Day 7 Carnarvon – Mt Augustus (B/L/D)

In 1924 Charles Kingsford Smith started the mail run from Carnarvon, through Gascoyne Junction and Mt Augustus to Meekatharra. Mt Augustus is the world's largest monocline and has a central ridge which is almost 8 kilometres long and estimated to be 1000 million years old. The granite rock which lies beneath Mt Augustus is said to be 1650 million years old making it not only twice the size of Uluru but also considerably older. Francis Thomas Gregory reached the summit on 3 June 1858 during his 107-day journey through the Gascoyne region, he named the peak after his brother, Sir Augustus Charles Gregory. Enjoy a tranquil sunset while we prepare your BBQ. Overnight at Mt Augustus Tourist Resort (Cabins, shared bathroom & toilet)

Day 8 Mt Augustus – Meekatharra (B/L/D)

Travelling along part of the Kingsford Smith Mail run we head towards Meekatharra via Landor known for its famous races. The colourful history began in 1921 when the stockmen from stations in the area were having a day off resting and doing their washing, they started to argue about who had the fastest horse, and so the race day was established. Continue on the mail run past Errabiddy station and Mt Gould to Meekatharra, an Aboriginal word meaning 'place of little water'. Meekatharra is a former gold rush town and today is a major supply centre for the pastoral and mining industries. The first settlement occurred in 1894. Peace Gorge was named in 1919 when a gala picnic and sports day was organised for the soldiers who returned to Meekatharra following World War I. Take in a panoramic sunset view over Meekatharra before retiring at the Auski Motel.

Day 9 Meekatharra – Dalwallinu (B/L/D)

Off bright and early through the small communities of Nannine, Tuckanarra and Nallan to Cue. Gold was discovered in 1892 and the town was named after an early prospector Tom Cue. 8klm away the town of Day Dawn, was established and by 1900 included a hospital and cemetery. Lake Austin and the town are both named after the surveyor Robert Austin, who was the first European to explore the area in 1895. Mount Magnet is an old gold rush town. The name was chosen during exploration of the region due to an extremely high iron content which affected the compasses of explorers. Paynes Find was named after the prospector, Thomas Payne, who was the first to discover gold in the area. Our final Destination for the day is Dalwallinu a Wheatbelt town on the Wildflower Route. The name of the town comes from the Aboriginal word that means "place to wait a while" or "good lands". "Wait a While in the goodlands" at the Dalwallinu Motel

Day 10 Dalwallinu – Home (B/L)

Pack up your troubles in your old kit bag as we make our way home through Wongan Hills, a wheat belt town settled in the 1900s, and named after "kwongan", an indigenous word for sand plain or whispering plain, In 1925 an agricultural research station was established about 5 km north of the town which assisted in the diversification and improvements in farm practices through the state. The area is a prosperous agricultural region with activities focused on sheep, grain and pig-farming. Enter the Avon Valley through the ballooning Town of Northam first explored in 1830. It was named by Governor Stirling, probably after a village of the same name in Devon, England and became a point of departure for explorers and settlers who were interested in the lands which lay to the east. The arrival of the railway made Northam the major departure point for fossickers and miners who headed east towards the goldfields. Welcome home to the South West for our last afternoon tea at Pinjarra. We hope you have enjoyed your Tour.

WILDFLOWERS IN RAVENSTHORPE, HOPETOUN

Cruise the highway through Boyup Brook and Kojonup, place of the stone axe, head off through Broomhill to Ongerup, "place of the male kangaroo" in the local Noongar language and home to the elusive Yongergnow Malleefowl centre. The name Yongergnow is made up from the Noongar words 'yonger' (male kangaroo) and 'gnow' (Malleefowl). The Centre includes the 'Fowl Play' exhibit that showcases the iconic Malleefowl and its habitat. Immerse yourself in the Mallee bushland surrounding the centre and take a short stroll to the large Mallee bush aviaries. Discover a stunning backdrop of bright, colourful and fascinating wildflowers and plants that grow in the area as we make our way to Bremer Bay on the south coast. Bremer Bay Motel overnight.

Day 2 Bremer Bay –Hopetoun (B/L/D)

Wellstead Heritage Museum, draws you into the Wellstead Legacy. Early settlers laboured tirelessly alongside their countrymen both squires and convicts alike, often enduring extreme adversity to build a collective spirit that would eventually forge our nation. Enjoy a morning tour at Bremer Bay and the delights the area holds for our adventure. Fitzgerald National Park is one of the largest and most botanically significant national parks in Australia. Within the park are found nearly 20 per cent of Western Australia's flora species, many of which occur only within its boundaries. Enjoy the lush surroundings before departing for Hopetoun named after the first Governor General of Australia, John Hope, 7th Earl of Hopetoun England. Overnight at the Hopetoun motel.

Day 3 Hopetoun – Ravensthorpe (B/D)

Ravensthorpe Wildflower Show. Free time for you to enjoy the Ravensthorpe Herbarium, situated next door to the Wildflower Show which holds many hundreds of botanical specimens collected from within the Ravensthorpe Shire. Experts on the local flowers are on hand each day for identification queries. Stop and buy your own lunch, Devonshire tea or warming soup. Browse the many stalls for books, cards, and products that feature the work of local artisans. Overnight at Hopetoun Motel.

Day 4 Hopetoun – Esperance (B/L/D)

Departing Hopetoun, and travel through the small town of Jedacuttup and Stokes Inlet to Esperance. French explorers are credited with making the first landfall near the present day town, naming it and other local landmarks whilst sheltering from a storm in this area in 1792. The town itself was named after a French ship, the Esperance, commanded by Bruni d'Entrecasteaux. Esperance, is French for 'hope'. Continue on our wildflower discovery in Esperance and Le Grande National Park. Overnight in Esperance.

Day 5 Esperance (B/D)

Visit the Wildflower exhibition in Esperance, an annual event showcasing the incredible diversity of wildflowers from the Esperance region. The event also showcases local artists and musicians, craft markets and delicious morning and afternoon teas and light lunches. The theme for the 2018 Festival is "Seeds on the Move" After lunch head out to the Esperance wind farm, photograph the pink lakes and take a walk through the Kepwari Wetland, Aboriginal for "place of still waters" and a water bird habitat. Overnight at the Esperance Hotel.

Day 6 Esperance – Home (B/L)

Farewell to Esperance and home ward bound through the towns of Lake King I named after the Surveyor General of Western Australia, Henry Sandford King, Newdegate, Kokerin to Dumbleyung. The name is of Aboriginal origin, coming from "Dambeling" which possibly means "large lake or inland sea") On December 31, 1964 a crowd gathered on the shores of Lake Dumbleyung to watch English speedster Donald Campbell break a world water speed record. Mr Campbell clocked an incredible 444.71kph across the lake in his bright blue hydroplane, the Bluebird. Travel on through Arthur River to Collie. Enjoy your last afternoon tea with fellow passengers then roll on down the scenic coalfields highway to Bunbury.

Day 1 Home – Narrogin (L/D)

Learn about the rail system in Collie at the renovated Railway Museum before taking lunch at Jesse Martins Pioneer Village, dating from the 1900s Jesse has replicated an old hotel, picture theatre and store as well as displaying old farm machinery, cars and trucks.

Narrogin means “water hole” in the local Noongar Aboriginal language and was first recorded in a survey in 1869 for a pool in the Hotham River. The first pioneers arrived in 1893, mainly railway construction workers and their families, and the town became one of the original sidings on the Great Southern Railway. Enjoy an early dinner at Narrogin Motel before departing for Barna Mia, Aboriginal for “animal home”. Located in the heart of Dryandra Woodland this sanctuary has been constructed to provide visitors the opportunity to view, at close range, a number of endangered marsupials. On a guided nocturnal night tour discover bilbies, wallabies, woylies, boodies and bandicoots up close as they scuttle over your feet.

Day 2 Narrogin – Northam (B/L/D)

Traveling through the town of Wickiepin, the home of Albert Facey who wrote the book a “Fortunate Life” and on through Yealering to the small town of Corrigin. Based on crops and sheep, this small town holds the world record of ‘the most dogs in a ute and a dog cemetery for those beloved pets. Enjoy the wildflower trail before passing through the wheatbelt town of Quairading. Cunderdin is an Aboriginal name meaning either “place of the bandicoot” or “place of flowers”. Find out what the Meckering earthquake felt like in a replicated shaking house at the Cunderdin NO 3 Pumping Station Museum and gain an insight into the trials and difficulties in building the water pipeline to Kalgoorlie. Have a beer at the Ettamogah hotel. Heading South visit the Meckering earthquake site before reaching our destination for the day at Northam.

Day 3 Wongan Hills, New Norcia, Northam (B/L/D)

Passing through the small wheat belt town of Goomalling, prominent for a spring found by explorers Hillman and Lefroy in 1846. It was gazetted in 1903 and is an Aboriginal word which means “the place of the silver-grey possum”. Goomal is the noongar word for this possum. Check out the wildflowers at Reynoldson Reserve and join in the wildflower festival in Wongan Hills. The area was settled by the 1900s, named and is an indigenous word for “whispering” or whispering hills. Today the area is a prosperous agricultural region with activities focused on sheep, grain and pig-farming. Join in the wildflower festival and enjoy the many market stalls. After lunch travel along the historic route taken by the Benedictine monks to New Norcia. Take a guided tour around the beautiful Spanish designed village before returning to the Northam Motel.

Day 4 Northam – Home (B)

If you are looking for that special piece for your garden then look no further than at the Toodyay Emporium, something for everyone. Free time in historic Toodyay steeped in Moondyne Joe history. Be early and purchase your Christmas decorations at the largest Christmas store where it's Christmas all year round. There are thousands of gifts, decorations, collectables, trees, trimmings and more to suit every style and every budget, including the ever-popular Lemax Christmas Village Miniatures, the store is bursting with stock. Chittering Valley. Chittering is Aboriginal in origin and is thought to mean place of the “willie wagtails” and the sound they make. Buy your own lunch at the Bindoon Bakery before Defying gravity at the Gingin Gravity Centre, learn about black holes, magnetic fields and forces and climb the leaning tower. Enjoy our last afternoon tea at Pinjarra.

7 Days, 6 Nights

Cost Adults $1890, Seniors $1855, S/S $403

Includes: Morning & afternoon tea, entry fees, lunches

Day 1 Mundaring – Southern Cross (L/D)

Mundaring Weir is where it all began for CY O'Connor when he dreamt of supplying water to the Kalgoorlie Goldfields. Pump Station 1 gives birth to all 560 km of the 'Golden Pipeline'. Meckering was completely destroyed by WA's strongest recorded earthquake in 1968. View the Meckering Earth Quake centre & information park. The Cunderdin Museum is housed in the original No 3 Pump Station and contains a collection of local artefacts and displays as well as an interactive earth quake house! Merredin named from the Aboriginal word which means 'The place of Merritt's', a locally abundant tree. The trunks of the tree were used for making spears. Overnight: Southern Cross Motel

Day 2 Southern Cross – Kalgoorlie (B/L/D)

Reflect on the hardship of those early days at the Southern Cross pioneer cemetery only used from 1891- to 1898 and is an important reminder of the miners and pioneers who first settled this inhospitable area. Discover the history from 1892 at the Coolgardie Museum, the mother town to one of the world's richest goldfields which supported a population of 15,000, but is now registered as a thriving 'ghost town'. From Coolgardie we travel to Kalgoorlie for a quick tour of the towns highlights. Stop to catch your breath at Mt Charlotte Lookout. The adjoining reservoir is the storage point for the water from the pipeline. Take a tour inside Questa Casa, operating for 112 years and possibly the world's oldest working bordello.

Overnight: Kalgoorlie Best Western Motel

Day 3 Kalgoorlie – Boulder (B/D)

Step back in time as we visit the site of the old Bush Two Up ring, one of the first forms of gambling!. Today the 'Golden Mile' is known by all as the 'Super Pit' - and is a great photo opportunity. The Royal Flying Doctor Service began as a dream by the Rev John Flynn, a minister who was concerned by the tragedies and accidents among isolated communities. The Goatcher Curtain depicting the Bay of Naples has hung in the Boulder town hall since 1908 and is believed to be the last surviving example of a Philip Goatcher stage curtain in Western Australia. Tour the Kalgoorlie Museum and discover the gold room, photograph a breathtaking view from the top of the mine headframe across the city. Visit a variety of wildlife and aviary birds at Hammond Park before departing for the Mining Hall of Fame, a memorial to the prospectors and miners who came to seek their fortune. Overnight: Kalgoorlie Best Western Motel

Day 4 Menzies – Leonora (B/L/D)

Farewell Kalgoorlie and travel North through the historic mining town of Menzies to Lake Ballard. A surreal landscape where the metal statuettes of 51 residents of an outback town inhabit ten square kilometres of a shimmering salt lake, the lake's brilliant white expanse, dotted with the famous sculptures invokes an instant sense of awe. The town of Leonora honours a niece of Sir John Forrest, Miss Phyllis Leonora Hardey. When Forrest was exploring the region in an 1869 expedition in search of the remains of legendary explorer Ludwig Leichhardt (who had disappeared in 1848), he came across a distinctive conical hill which he named in his niece's honour. Unbeknown to Forrest, this prominent geographic feature was an ancient Aboriginal site of tremendous spiritual significance, including association with the 'dreaming' of the 'Seven Sisters'. Overnight in Leonora.

Day 5 Leonora –Mt Magnet (B/L/D)

Travel through the historic mining towns of Leinster, established in 1976 by Agnew Mining as a town for workers at its nearby Perseverance, Rockys Reward nickel mines and Agnew gold mines. The townsite of Sandstone was a gold rush boom town around 1902. In 1906 the population was reached 8000 but by the end of WWI the gold rush was over, leaving Sandstone close to being a ghost town. The main industries are pastoral stations farming sheep and gold mining. Visit London Bridge and an old brewery which was located in a cave to provide beer for the miners in the early days. Mount Magnet is one of the Mid West region's original gold mining towns. It was named by Robert Austin because of an extremely high iron content which affected the readings of his compass. Overnight in Mt Magnet.

Day 6 Mt Magnet – Northam (B/L/D)

Farewell to the mining Industry as we make our way home through Kirkalocka, Wydgee and Paynes Find. Visit the Gold Battery, the only working battery remaining in Western Australia. Learn about the gold mining process in the early 1900s. Take a look at the history of grain handling in the wheatbelt at the Wubin Wheatbin Museum. Buy your own lunch in Dalwallinu. Travel through to Burakin and Dowerin where in 1906 the government extended the railway from Goomalling to the developing Dowerin Agricultural Area. One source suggests dowerin is the Aboriginal word for the twenty-eight parrot (dow-arn), and another suggests it means "place of the throwing stick" (dower) Overnight in Northam

Day 7 Northam – Home (B/L)

Departing Northam we make our way through historic York and on to Beverly, the name is attributed to Colonial Surgeon Charles Simmons, who was born in Beverley, Yorkshire in the United Kingdom and was one of the first landowners in the district. Explore the Dead Finish Hotel museum and a historical collection of many old modes of transport. Continue on through Pingelly and Boddington to the Quindanning Hotel for lunch. Homeward bound, enjoy our last afternoon tea in Collie. Welcome Home!
